TRAILER RENTAL POLICY

Grand Rental Station DOES NOT accept any liability for any of our trailers that leaves our property without lights and or directional signals working properly when hooked up to our customers vehicles. All trailers lights are in proper working condition when they leave our property. All trailer lights work properly when hooked up to Grand Rental Station's vehicles, and cannot be modified to work with customer's vehicle. It is customers responsibility to modify there vehicle to work with Grand Rental Station's trailers. If there is an occasion where there are non working lights on trailer, please bring it to any Grand Rental Station associate and it will be repaired before trailer leaves our property, or a different trailer will be issued.
